MARSHAL FOCH CAPTURES NEW YORK

IS GREETED WITH WILD ACCLAM BY VAST MULTITUDES

But Few Scenes Equal to His Reception Have Been Enacted in America's Metropolis—Pershing First to Greet Him on American Soil—Washington Also Enthusiastic

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Marshal Foch captured New York today and then sped away to conquer the rest of the country.

New York surrendered without striking a blow. For a long, long time the city had been waiting to pay off just a little of its debt of gratitude to the small man in horizon blue whose skill and daring at martial chess had reduced the proud armies of Germany and this afternoon it seized its opportunity.

Not since Dewey returned from Manila, not since armistice day, did the city's millions turn out with such spontaneity and in such numbers. Had the hardy little Frenchman who led ten million soldiers to victory ridden up Broadway in a war chariot, dragging captives behind him like the emperors of Rome, he could not have received a greater welcome than was accorded him as he rode up the historic thoroughfare in a twentieth century motor car, enveloped in a deluging shower of paper hurled from skyscraper windows.

WRITING OF MERE REPORT WILL NOT SETTLE TROUBLE

This is Opinion of Newspaper Men in Mingo Trouble

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The writing of "a mere report" by the Senate committee investigating West Virginia coal mine disorders will avail nothing in the direction of a settlement of the long standing controversy, Winthrop D. Lane, New York newspaper correspondent and magazine writer, declared today in testimony before the committee. He was called by the committee to give his views after an inquiry which he conducted into conditions of violence in that field.

Replying to questions by Chairman Kenyon, the witness said it would require the exercise of statesmanship and pressure, to bring about an end of the trouble.

Mr. Lane's testimony came in the course of a day of frank discussion of the situation by H. C. Ogden, publisher of the Wheeling News and Intelligence, and William H. Wiley, a West Virginia operator running unionized mines. Mr. Ogden assailed the West Virginia state administration for failure to put thru legislation, which he declared would have checked alleged abuses of the mine guard system, while Mr. Wiley took both operators and miners to task for shortcomings of which the witness claimed each was guilty.

Superintendent Arnold of the West Virginia department of Public Welfare controlling the state constabulary, testified that at present the state police numbered about 200 men, approximately half of whom were stationed in Mingo county.

BLANTON OFFERS APOLOGY TO THE HOUSE THURSDAY

Says Bears No Malice to Members for Action

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—An apology to the house which at tempted yesterday to expel him was made today by Representative Thomas L. Blanton, Democrat of Texas, in a letter to Speaker Gillette, read to his colleagues and warmly applauded, especially by Republicans.

The Texan occupying the same seat from which he arose to defend himself against the charge that he had printed in the congressional record an obscene affidavit relating to a conversation between two printers, took no part in the brief discussion preceding the presentation of his apology.

The letter was sent to the speaker and laid before the house by Representative Walsh, Republican, Mass., acting in the former's absence. It read:

"I am not involved in no issue now before the house, hence what I now say is not a sacrifice of any principle.

"When I expressed a wish of being able to place before the country the record expunged I was misunderstood by my colleagues who believed that I would circulate the objectionable language. My intention was not to do this, but to circulate the expurgated record with all the objectionable words and abbreviations contained in the employee's affidavit eliminated and circulated only to show to the country the honest bona fide purpose of my remarks.

"I realize that the judgment of no human is infallible. I bow to the collective judgment of my colleagues, against none of which I harbor malice, and offer this my apology to the house for what my colleagues in their decision determine was an error."

The Texan was in his seat when the house convened, and stayed there most of the day.

Investigation of conditions at the public printing office by a special committee of five members was proposed in a resolution today by Representative Linberger, Republican, California.

During his fight yesterday Representative Blanton charged that it was practically impossible for a non-union man to work at the office.

AMERICANS ARE FORGETTING THE LESSONS OF WAR

Must Get Back Spirit That Prevalled in War Times

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—The cause of railroad labor troubles and of most other industrial disputes is that this country is forgetting too soon the spirit which brought about the "wonderful service of Americans to America in France," Governor Henry J. Allen of Kansas declared tonight in an address at the annual convention of the Audit Bureau of Circulation.

"Our industrial troubles would be quickly settled if the spirit which won the war was used to dispose of them," said Governor Allen.

"In connection with the railroad strike which threatened for a while, we might regret that it was called off because if there had been a strike congress might have achieved enough 'dutch' courage to establish a national industrial court which could easily settle such matters."

Governor Allen attacked the Adamson law as a contributory cause of all railroad labor troubles. He also denounced labor as "trying to retain the high wages it got by staying at home during the war."

RESULT OF NORTH DAKOTA ELECTION STILL IN DOUBT

Independent Ticket Shows Slight Lead at Mid-night

FARGO, N. D., Oct. 28.—When 341 precincts out of 2,094 in the state had reported at midnight from today's recall election in North Dakota the figures stood:

R. A. Nestos, Independent candidate for governor, 36,358; Governor Lynn J. Frazier, Non-Partisan, 17,480.

These returns were from scattered precincts in 25 of the state's 53 counties.

These returns were from admittedly Independent territory as a rule, and included the incomplete vote of some of the larger eastern cities and of Minot in the northwest.

The Non-Partisan League leaders maintained that later returns from the strictly rural sections, where they predominate would swing the final vote decisively in their favor.

In the far west counties where the league has its stronghold the returns naturally were later than those of the Missouri river, due to the change to mountain time at the river. Reports from the western counties did not start coming in until shortly before midnight.

Running About Even.

The candidates for attorney general and commissioner of agriculture and labor were running about on the same basis as the gubernatorial candidates and it was apparent the final vote in their cases would approximate that of the heads of the ticket.

Returns on the constitutional amendments and initiated laws had not been compiled at midnight.

Returns from 421 precincts out of 2,094 in the state gave for governor: Nestos, 42,008; Frazier, 23,348.

Each side scored a goose-egg in the early returns. Swede township in Lamour county gave Frazier, 127, and Nestos, 0, and Abercrombie, Richland county, evened matters by voting 134 to 0 for all three Independent candidates.

REED LAUNCHES ANOTHER FIGHT FOR BONUS BILL

Wants an Amendment Attached to Tax Revision Bill

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Another fight in the senate over the soldiers' bonus bill was launched today by Senator Reed, democrat, Missouri, who introduced an amendment to the pending tax revision bill to enact the bonus legislation which was re-committed to the finance committee last July at the request of President Harding. Senator Reed's amendment proposed to raise a special fund in the treasury department for expenses of the bonus plan by continuing excess profits taxes on corporations at 1921 rates.

Republican leaders characterized the Reed amendment as "political play" and predicted the amendment would be rejected but Senator Reed, who has announced he would discuss the republican attitude on taxation and the bonus at the Kansas City national convention of the American Legion, promised to make a hard fight in its behalf. Republican spokesmen declared they intended to follow President Harding's recommendation that action on the bonus bill be delayed until the national finances were in better position to bear the expenses involved.

Senator Reed sought to call up his amendment late today but it went over under a prior agreement to consider other provisions of the tax bill. Republican leaders said they planned to move to table the amendments as soon as it was called up, which would result in debate being shut off.

SENATE REJECTS PROPOSAL FOR GRADUATED TAX

Committee Amendment for 15% Flat Tax Adopted

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—After rejecting two proposals for a graduated income tax on corporations—each by a margin of a single vote—the senate adopted today 36 to 26, the finance committee amendment to the tax revision bill providing for a flat 15 percent tax.

Proponents of a graduated levy or of some other plan that would prevent the proposed increase of fifty per cent in the tax of thousands of corporations making small profits, gave notice that they would renew their fight later. They expressed confidence tonight that they would win.

Senator Walsh, Democrat, of Mass., author of the two amendments voted down today, 33 to 22, said he had been assured by Senators Johnson, Republican, California, and Myers, Democrat, Montana, who were absent at the roll calls today, that they would support his amendment when next presented. Senator Walsh also expects to win over some Republicans who voted against him today.

The first proposal of the Massachusetts senator was for a tax of ten per cent on the first one hundred thousand dollars of income, 15 per cent on the next two hundred thousand and 20 per cent on all over three hundred thousand with an added provision that corporations which did not pay an excess profits tax for the calendar year 1920 should pay only at the rate of 10 per cent.

Loses Second Time.

After this had been rejected Senator Walsh offered it again with a provision that in addition to those not paying an excess profits tax in 1920, corporations whose net income did not exceed eight per cent on the invested capital should pay only at the ten per cent rate.

The vote on the first amendment was as follows:

For the Walsh amendment: Democrats: Ashurst, Brundage, Caraway, Gerry, Harris, Hefflin, Hitchcock, Jones, New Mexico; Kendrick, King, McKellar, Overman, Pomeroy, Reed, Sheppard, Simmons, Swanson, Trammell, Walsh, Massachusetts; Walsh, Montana, and Watson, Georgia, —22.

Republicans: Borah, Capper, Cummins, Kenyon, LaFollette, McEnroe, McNary, Norbeck, Norris and Townsend, —10.

Total—32.

Against the Walsh amendment: Republicans: Brandegee, Bursum, Calder, Curtis, Edge, Fernald, France, Frelinghuysen, Gooding, Hale, Harold, Keyes, Lodge, McCumber, McKinley, Moses, Nelson, New, Norberry, Oddie, Page, Phipps, Poindexter, Shortridge, Smoot, Spencer, Stanford, Sutherland, Wadsworth, Warren, Watson, Indiana; Weller and Willis, —33.

On the amended Walsh amendment the roll call showed the same result except that Senator Borah did not vote. Senator Nelson changed his vote from "nay" to "aye" and Senator Dillingham, who was paired on the first roll call, voted "aye."

Eight Republicans voted against adoption of the committee amendment for the 15 per cent flat. They were Calder, Edge, Frelinghuysen, Johnson, LaFollette, McKinley, McNary and Norris.

Two Democrats, Reed and King, voted for the committee proposition.

RAILROADS WILL GO AHEAD WITH PLANS FOR NEW WAGE CUTS

Railroad Heads Make Announcement Friday—Railway Age Editor Says That Calling Off of the Strike Does Not Settle the Question of Further Wage and Rate Reductions

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Railroad heads today declared that the nation's carriers would go right ahead with their plans to seek new wage cuts thru railroad labor board hearings despite the announcement from the unions that their action in calling off the strike scheduled for October 30 had been influenced by the board's announcement that pay reduction petitions for any class would not be considered until working conditions for that class had been settled.

"The calling off of the strike will have no effect on the plans announced by the carriers Oct. 14 to seek immediate wage reductions so that rates can be reduced," said Samuel Felton, president of the Chicago Great Western and chairman of the Association of Western Railroad Executives.

"I don't know how long under the board's ruling, it will take to reach a decision on any pay cut petition, but these petitions undoubtedly will be presented within a very short time. It will be up to the board then to decide what action should be taken."

"I want it made plain however, that we will seek these petitions in accordance with the law posting notices of cuts, then discussing them with the employees, and if no agreement is reached, appealing to the board to settle the dispute."

Mr. Felton's statements were echoed by Samuel Dunn, editor of Railway Age, who in an address at a luncheon of the local railroad executives declared that the union's action settled only one thing—that there will be no strike. Roads Going Ahead With Plans.

"It does not settle the question of further wage reductions or of rate reductions," he continued. "The roads are going right ahead with the plans to get further pay cuts and thus reduce rates. But if the interstate commerce commission reduces rates and the labor board refuses to reduce wages, the roads will be in a disastrous condition."

With the code messages officially calling off the strike sent out today, only one echo remained of the railroad crisis which for two weeks threatened to develop into a general rail strike. The situation was unchanged on the International & Great Northern, the Texas line where 60 trainmen started a walkout last Saturday. No order to call off the strike was sent these men. W. G. Lee, president of the trainmen saying that the matter is in the hands of the union officials down there.

Mr. Lee, however, conferred with the labor board today and it was known that he is making every effort to bring a settlement of that strike which will be satisfactory to the employees.

The chiefs of the "big five" left for their homes today and tonight and by midnight scarcely an out of town union man was in the city.

The labor board continued work on a decision of Wednesday's hearing and probably will render it tomorrow.

Board members were particularly interested in dispatches from Washington, scanning every line in their efforts to determine how government officials looked on the strike averting efforts. No word had been received by the board from any government officials.

THERE IS SPIRIT OF RESENTMENT AMONG R. MEN

Opinion Voiced in Statement by President Gompers

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Expression of administration opinion on the withdrawal of the call for a railroad strike awaits the report sent President Harding by the railroad labor board it was said today in high official circles. While the board does not usually report to the president upon its proceedings it will do so in this instance, it was explained, having been charged by the chief executive with the responsibility for assessing the strike situation. The only expression of opinion from labor circles here came from President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, who declared "the spirit among railroad men today is one of resentment."

"The railroad strike will not take place—now," Mr. Gompers said, "but if the railroad labor board goes on cutting down wages and working conditions, the present American railroad labor organizations—which are the most reasonable in the world—will be succeeded by organizations which will voice the sentiment of the dissatisfied, the restless and the discontented."

Says Law is Mistake.

Mr. Gompers emphasized his opinion that the establishment by the Esch-Cummins law of the labor board was an error in governmental policy.

"The board says it has 1,500 cases on its docket now," he said, "and nothing could be a greater indictment of the law. It has made representatives of employer and employee in the railroad world litigants bound to put the most extended force into all of their demands and to yield nothing."

"The government's position has always been one of coercing labor, threatening with jail and injunction men who consider striking. Yet the fact is that American labor is made up of citizens of the republic who are not going to drop back or to allow a withdrawal of the standards of living which they have attained by their efforts."

PASSENGER TRAIN GOES THRU BRIDGE

FLINT, Mich., Oct. 29.—A Grand Trunk passenger train crashed thru a bridge near Elba, Mich., 15 miles from here early today (Saturday). A call for assistance received at Flint, requested all available physicians, nurses and ambulances be sent. The number of persons injured or killed was not given in the message.

PETITION REHEARING ON TAX CASES

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 28.—Petitions for rehearing of the franchise tax cases which they lost in the supreme court last week were filed today with Clerk Charles W. Vail, by the Chicago & Western Illinois railroad, the Toledo, Peoria & Western and the Lake Erie. The court held that the roads must pay franchise taxes on their full authorized capital stock instead of on the amount of stock issued.

Banks, business men, government and agricultural leaders are all making strenuous efforts to aid the farmers. Thru this union of effort it is very certain that some good must come or else the agricultural conditions is hopeless.

A record has been kept at the Pacific hotel for the past two weeks to show exactly the number of applicants for rooms it has been necessary to turn away each night. During that period the highest number has been 67 and the lowest 35. There have been cases where every room in the house has been engaged in advance.

These figures are related here just by way of emphasis of the need of a new and commodious hotel building in Jacksonville.

The united budget campaign is near at hand. The plans have been well made and each organization represented is holding its budget requirements down just as much as possible, so that the general sum asked for may not seem too formidable. Every cause represented in that campaign has its proven worth, and it is the duty of the people of his community to give the movement their most cordial and generous support.

Ministers often advise their people to give toward charitable projects "until it hurts." How often has that advice been needed? How many people are there who have ever made real personal sacrifices in order to be able to help along some good cause?

Frank L. Mawson is not making an active campaign for election as the Republican candidate for county commissioner. During his term of service Mr. Mawson has consistently sought to faithfully meet the duties of the office and to give county business the attention that it merits. He has the feeling that if the people believe in his earnestness that they will express their approval by casting their votes for him in the election which is near at hand. Certainly that is the way to voice approval of the work of a faithful public servant.

There were indications yesterday that the period of beautiful fall weather is at an end, at least temporarily. Certainly a few days of gloomy weather should not dispel the memory of the wonderful weeks that have just passed.
One reason for keeping in cheerful mood even on rainy fall days is because road conditions in this county are so incomparably better than they used to be. It's a rare road in Morgan county that has not been dragged and drained. All this work means that it will take days of downpour to put the roads in a really bad condition.

PROTECTION BECOMING WORLD WIDE

Discussing increase in foreign tariffs the Republican Publicity association, says: "A bill has been introduced in the Argentine congress which provides for a 30 per cent increase in customs duties on imported goods, with a 60 per cent increase on luxuries, effective three months after the law is promulgated. Provision is made whereby the Executive is authorized to suspend the increase, wholly or in part, on merchandise originating in countries which provide for fair treatment in the way of duties on Argentine cereals, hides and skins, wool, live stock and subsidiary products of agriculture and pastoral industry."

"In Austria the tariff has been increased on a large number of commodities by a law made effective July 20, 1921. It is stated that this law was passed in accordance with a promise made by the government to the league of nations to increase its revenue-bearing customs duties. Certain groups of goods have been marked up to 150 times their former custom house duties. Included in this group are coffee, tea, cocoa, sugar, fruits, etc. This is known as Group 384. In Group 386 are a number of articles imported from the United States such as preserved fruits, marmalade, sub-ber boots, high grade textiles, tires, water-proof wearing apparel, etc. Other goods pay 120 times the pre-war duties, as do those in Group 386.

"In British East Africa duties have been revised upward and many American commodities will be affected thereby 33 per cent. while the British preferential rate of 10 per cent remains unchanged.
In Yugoslavia the maximum rates have in most cases been doubled. Rumania has raised her duty rates, and the Department of Commerce is awaiting the final adoption of the recent Australian tariff before publishing the complete text which will show large increases in duty rates with Great Britain enjoying a preferential in the Australian markets.
Likewise, in the Barbadoes, duty rates have been increased, but the Britons enjoy a preferential.

EVELYN NESBIT
IS NOW REAPING
THE WHIRLWIND

Once Famous Beauty is in Hard Financial
Straits

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Evelyn Nesbit was resting comfortably tonight, after taking an overdose of morphine when a city marshal began moving furniture from her apartment.

It was a vivid day in the life of Miss Nesbit, once the wife of Harry K. Thaw, later the wife of a dancer, Jack Clifford, and now Evelyn Nesbit again, no longer a dancer herself, but owner of a tea room in the theater district.

Her financial distress, which caused all the excitement today, came to light a month ago when a city marshal appeared at her tea room with an eviction warrant.
Miss Nesbit arranged to pay overdue rent on the $300 a month tea room and her $150 a month apartment upstairs. The marshal went away.

Today another came on a similar mission and began taking furniture out to the street while Miss Nesbit sobbed, wrung her hands and frantically called her lawyer on the telephone. The lawyer obtained a truce of a few hours with the landlord and Miss Nesbit began calling friends in the hope of raising some cash. In this she failed.

She telegraphed to her mother in Philadelphia and a few minutes afterward leaned out of the window and screamed.

"I've taken enough morphine to kill twenty persons," she yelled to the marshal, falling back with the cry that she was going to die.

An ambulance surgeon came quickly and used a stomach pump. The landlord on hearing about the episode announced he would wait until noon next Monday before pressing for the renewal of the eviction warrant.

WILL LAUNCH
PROHI PROGRAM

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—A prohibition program extending over a term of from five to ten years will be launched in Illinois churches next Sunday, the anti-saloon league here announced today. This will be a part of the nationwide observance of "Prohibition Sunday" when a concerted drive is to be made to show the prohibition campaign is not yet finished. The election of dry public officials, the completion of enforcement organizations throuout the state and an educational campaign to emphasize the benefits of law enforcement are on the Illinois program.

SHOE MANUFACTURERS
SEEK FACTORY SITE

Representative of International Shoe Company Made Inspection Trip to This City—Conference Held With Chamber of Commerce Officers.

A representative of the International Shoe company of St. Louis was in Jacksonville yesterday to talk over with officers of the Chamber of Commerce something about the possibilities of establishing a branch factory in this city. The visitor, Mr. Kidder, is an engineer for the company and a visit of inspection is always the first step toward the location of a plant. If on this preliminary visit the engineer gains a favorable opinion of the city, other representatives of the company come at a later time for a more careful survey with particular thought as to possible factory sites.

Mr. Kidder was accompanied on a trip of inspection about the city yesterday by President R. V.
Rowe, Secretary Harold Welch and Henry Frisch of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr.
Kidder looked at possible factory sites and was given information with reference to water and power supply, shipping facilities and made some inquiry on his own account into the labor situation.

Considering Several Cities

Jacksonville is one of a number of cities now being considered by the International Shoe company and the visit of Mr. Kidder yesterday must be understood merely as a preliminary matter with uncertainty as to whether there will be any further development.

The International Shoe company is the largest organization of its kind in the world. At the present time it owns and operates forty-five different factories, a great many of them located in Missouri and Illinois cities. There are fifteen of these factories in St. Louis and for the most part the others are located in cities of from 8,000 to 10,000 population. However, the company has for a period of years owned a factory at Hannibal, Mo., and also one at Springfield, Ill.

The company also owns some factories in the east and operates from the company is at present from the Illinois and Missouri factories, 100,000 pairs of shoes a day and from the eastern factories 40,000 pairs of shoes.

The salesmen for the company now are daily selling a great many more shoes than are being produced, which means that the season of selling can run only through a brief period of weeks.
The company has the unusual record of having had all its factory run at full speed ever since the war, and with no shut downs.

The Work Plan

A factory of average size which the company establishes employs about 500 people. Of this number 40 per cent or men and 60 per cent women. If a factory were established in this city a superintendent and a very few workers would be brought here and the other employees would be secured locally. Fair wages are paid during the period of instruction and then after a few months still higher wages are paid.

One advantage to a city in a shoe factory is that the work is not seasonal, meaning that the same force is employed all the year through. The company, in selecting the cities where its factories are to be located pays attention to housing and the social life of the employees. The company also requires a certain sum of money be paid toward the building which will be erected and enters into a contract to pay out in wages within a limited period ten times the amount of the city's contribution.

Mr. Welch has personal knowledge of the workings of the company's plant at Charleston. There the company pays out in wages a sum three or four times greater than that required in the contract.
As already indicated, no attempt was made yesterday to talk to Mr.
Kidder about any facts relating to a local proposition other than in a general way.

Chamber of Commerce Appoints Committee for That Purpose—Also Will Investigate Gas and Electric Rates.

At a meeting of the committee on committees of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday morning, several new appointments were made which include a committee on the new hotel project and another to investigate the gas and electric rates of other cities of this size.

The most important work of the chamber during the coming weeks will probably be in connection with the erection of a large new hotel, which the members all agree is something that the city is in need of. The hotel committee is made up of Henry Frisch, Charles Buhner, Byron Armstrong and Walter Crawford. Those on the gas and electric investigation committee are J. W. Elliott, F. E.
Farrell and J. S. Hackett.

A committee has been named to co-operate with Morgan county Poultry Association in regard to the annual exhibit as follows, W.
A. Berryman, Elmer Snyder and William McNamara.

The meeting to arrange for the Armistice Day celebration will probably be held Monday with the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary and Kiwanis clubs, Service Star Legion, Ministerial association and the Board of Education represented.

HOMER PASCHALL IS HOMESTEADING CLAIM

Homer Paschall, well known ex-serviceman of this city, is now engaged in homesteading a claim located near Pine Dale, Wyoming.
According to word received by his father, Pine Dale is situated 122 miles from any railroad, the nearest railroad town being Rock Springs.

Mr. Paschall writes many in-home steader's life. He has a homesteader's life. He has a claim of 325 acres, mostly grazing land, with a few acres suitable for farming. The village of Pine Dale has a population of 600 and he states that there are 140 veterans within a 15 mile radius of his claim. "A spirit of fraternity that also always characterizes districts of this kind, is very evident. Neighbors help each other build houses. He tells of his own log cabin which he and his nearest neighbor constructed.
His father, Mr. J. A. Paschall, is planning to visit his son and the claim in the spring.

INDIAN CREEK FARMERS' THRESHING ASSOCIATION

In the northwest part of the county a number of farmers decided they wouldn't wait for the slow motions of the regular threshing men but would be independent and have an outfit of their own.

To this end Harry Ogle, Vinton Brainer, Henry Brainer, Nevill Brainer, Roscoe Goodpasture, Oscar Beddingford and Fred Branner united and bought an outfit a few years ago and have been going along all right ever since and have had their threshing done when they wanted it. They call it the Indian Creek Threshing association. Thursday evening they met at the home of Vinton Brainer and proceeded with an election that resulted as follows: President—Harry Ogle.
Treasurer—Henry Brainer.
Manager—Vinton Brainer.
After the business session the ladies treated the gathering to ant social hour followed.

Alexander, Oct. 28.—The members of the Epworth League of the M. E. church held a masquerade social at the church Friday evening. There were a large number of young people present and a delightful program of games and contests was carried out. The church basement was prettily decorated with autumn leaves and various Halloween favors. Refreshments were served during the evening.

The chicken pie supper given at the M. E. church Thursday evening was a very successful event. The attendance was very large, among those present being a number from Springfield and Jacksonville. Mrs. Noel Wiley was chairman of the committee in charge of the arrangements and all co-operated in a way which made the supper the success that it was. The menu was most appetizing and altogether the affair was one of the most successful which the women of the M. E. church have planned.

PROMINENT CITIZEN
STRICKEN SUDDENLY

Joseph L. Capps Dies on Way Home From Office—Had Been Treasurer of J. Capps and Sons for Many Years—Funeral Sunday Afternoon.

Joseph L. Capps, treasurer for J. Capps and Sons, the concern which his father founded, died suddenly yesterday noon, as he was going home from the factory offices. He was stricken on the corner of Church street and Lafayette avenue and was dead by the time the physician arrived. In falling, his head struck the pavement, inflicting an injury which may have hastened his death.

Mr. Capps has not been in very good health for some time but continued his duties at the factory the same as usual. The body was removed to Reynolds' Mortuary where Coroner Rose conducted an inquest.

The decedent was born in Jacksonville, February 28, 1851, a son of Joseph and Sarah Capps. He was educated in the public schools, Illinois college and the Jacksonville Business college. He then began work with the Capps company in the bookkeeping department.

Mr. Capps was united in marriage with Miss Ella Tandy of Harris-town, Ill., on May 16, 1876. Mrs.
Capps preceded him in death several years ago, as did two children, Clarence and Warren. The surviving children are Herbert J. Capps and Leland T. Capps. There are two grandchildren, Margaret and Herbert Capps, Jr. One brother, Charles C.
Capps of this city survives, and one sister, Mrs. Effie C. McCabe of Delaware, Ohio.

The decedent's connection with the Capps firm naturally made him prominent in manufacturing circles of the middle west. He successfully handled the business originated by an earlier generation of his family.
Mr. Capps possessed quiet disposition and dignity and was one of Jacksonville's most highly respected citizens. He was a Mason and a member of Grace Methodist church.

Death from acute dilatation of the heart was the verdict of the coroner's jury. This was based upon the opinion of Dr. Edward Bowe who had treated Mr. Capps for several years.
Charles DeSilva, who was the first person to reach the decedent after he fell was the only other witness at the inquest.

The coroner's jury was composed of Frank Bracewell, A. H. Bennett, Fred Eyre, T. V. Finney, Hugh P.
Green and E. W. Brockhouse.

The remains will be at the Reynolds chapel until 5 o'clock Sunday morning when they will be removed to the residence, 823 North Church street, where funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon.
Friends wishing to view the remains may do so at the Reynolds chapel after 10 o'clock this morning and up to 9 o'clock Sunday

LYNNVILLE PEOPLE BUILD NEW WALKS

Citizens of Community Cooperated in Building of New Gravel Walks Thursday.

W. G. Duckwall, president of the Village board of Lynnville, has presented the following facts with reference to the action of citizens of that community Thursday morning:

Thursday the village of Lynnville had the gravel hauling which was planned to be done at the time we had the burgoo dinner or some weeks ago when rain made the hauling impossible but not the burgoo dinner at which a large crowd enjoyed themselves.

By way of explanation it might be well to say that about the only feasible way to obtain sidewalks in the village with the small amount of revenue obtainable each year is to get the gravel from a nearby creek the farmers of the neighborhood bringing their teams and wagons and hauling gratis. The distance from any railroad is so great that to purchase crushed rock and pay transportation to our village would make the cost prohibitive.

Quite a number of years ago we started the plan as carried out Thursday. The village with the aid of donations of vegetables, chickens, pies, etc., from the surrounding neighborhood holding a burgoo dinner for all helpers, haulers, etc., and their families and at the same time hauling and preparing a predetermined location on the creek where gravel could be easiest gotten out; thus having a gala day and obtaining the necessary material at not too great expense, all financial outlay on these occasions coming from the village treasury.

Thursday was the hauling part of the original program but all helpers were again fed, no soliciting for oats being made outside of the village and for pies only, there, and "believe me" we had some fine array of pies. The oats consisted of roast beef with potatoes and gravy and pie.

We obtained thirty-six loads of gravel, about a car load of fifty tons from Brushy Fork creek about 5 miles south of the village.

Twenty-one teams and wagons responded as follows: Tom DeGrowth, William K. Gibbs, Albert Potter, H. V. McNeely's team (Moss driving), George Blackburn, O. C. Coultas, Bryan Waterfield, Andy Kitchen, Walter Casson, William Hundley, Homer Summers, Lon Fearneyhough, Lee Ward, Irvin Goveia, all the above hauled two loads, the following hauling one load each: William Fearneyhough, Jr., Jess Welch, S. A. Thompson, Ralph Heaton, D. M. Cooper, Fred Duckwall hauled one load of gravel and brought in the bridging material used at the gravel pit. Carl J. May used the spike team on the hill all day.

Fifteen helped with shovels as follows: Lee Stainsforth, Harvey Rutherford, Clarence Blackburn, Lee Crouse, W. E. Watson, Melton McFarland, W. H. Coultas, W. H. Stephenson, H. L. Cogitis, W. G. Duckwall, W. E. Rawlings, John Gill, Earl Landis and Fred Coultas.

The following ladies helped with the serving, nineteen in all: Mrs. H. L. Coultas, Mrs. Kate Hills, Mrs. W. E. Watson, Mrs. Winnifred Howe, Mrs. Nida Dunn, Miss Lorena Watson, Mrs. Clarence Blackburn, Mrs. Simon Blackburn, Mrs. George Blackburn, Mrs. Carl May, Mrs. Lon Fearneyhough, Mrs. Liza Taylor, Mrs. Hulda Moore, Mrs. Mary Duckwall, Miss Ozella Duckwall, Mrs. Bryan Waterfield, Mrs. Albert Potter, Mrs. Shirley McKean, Mrs. W. H. Coultas, Simon Blackburn being so unfortunate as to have a badly infected hand did what he could by helping around the kitchen.

In the name of the village I wish to thank all those who, not being residents of our village, showed their interest to the extent of laying aside their work for one day and helping haul and shovel gravel that we may have more sidewalks and thus make the community center a more fit and pleasant place in which to reside. Everyone around about should be directly interested in the improvement of our village for what enhances the appearance of it certainly adds something to the community as a whole.

We also wish to heartily thank the Christian church people for allowing us the free use of their church kitchen and all its conveniences for serving this and also the previous burgoo dinner and supper.

Lastly, I come to the people of the village itself; can they be considered in no other light than a plain duty of every citizen of the village to lay aside his or her work for this one day at least and out forth his best effort to make a success of the undertaking; and I can with few exceptions say this was done.

As President of the village I wish to personally express my appreciation for the loyalty and hearty support of my fellow citizens.

If we have neglected to personally mention any one whom we should have favorably mentioned I can assure you it is not intentional and we beg your pardon.

Because of the lateness of the season we will be unable to construct the walks this fall but the gravel being on hand they will certainly be laid next spring. While we did not obtain all the gravel needed and possibly not as much as we planned or hoped for, we are certainly grateful.

FELLOWSHIP DAY AT ROTARY CLUB

Addresses Were Made by H. M. Capps, M. L. Pontius and H. A. Perrin.

Friday was fellowship day at the Rotary club luncheon held at the Pacific hotel. President Riley presided and addresses emphasizing Rotary purposes and ideals were made by Harry M. Capps, Rev. M. L. Pontius and H. A. Perrin. The guests of the day were Colonel Smith, new managing officer of the State School for the Deaf, and George W. Scott, now of Connorsville, Ind.

Manager Bentley of the Pacific cafe received a vote of thanks for the special Halloween decorations and the splendid chicken menu that he served. The attendance was exceptionally good. Secretary Kopperl adopted a new method in calling the roll. Only the names were called of those members whose badges were hanging in the wall case. All but eight or ten of the seventy-five members were present.

Mr. Capps asked some pertinent questions as to whether Rotary club justifies its extension and then passed on to the influence of the better acquaintance which comes through the Rotary meetings and then emphasized the thought that an earnest working for Rotary ideals means that these ideals will permeate the business relations of Rotarians.

Mr. Pontius, while testifying to his appreciation of what Rotary fellowship means to him individually, suggested several definite goals of accomplishment which he believes might be attained within the next few months. He said that the great task of society today is to lift the level of humanity and said that it is the duty of Rotary to have its part in this great task.

Mr. Perrin, in defining what the Rotary spirit means, told of a conversation that he had in London with the first president of the Rotary club there. The facts narrated gave proof of the effect of the Rotary spirit and service in blotting out traditional lines of difference and even class hatred. He said that Rotary in its essential idea of service represents the practical embodiment of the spirit of the day. This humanizing spirit has its effect in education and social relationship in business and Rotary is doing its part in the creating of right relationships in helping people to realize their interdependence.

A LECTURE ON Christian Science

Christian Science: The True Import of the Word
BY Willis F. Gross, C. S. B.

Member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist in Boston, Mass.

Many important events in history stand out as milestones marking the way of human progress out of Egyptian darkness and bondage, through the wilderness of toil and struggle, up to the vision of the promised land. From the beginning of human experience earnest seekers for truth and righteousness have trod the straight and narrow way, lovingly obedient to the law of God as they understood that law, and we of today reap the benefits of their labors and sacrifice. We can not be too grateful for the good we have received, neither can we appreciate too highly the faithful endeavors of those noble and illustrious men and women who not only taught God's love for humanity, but who also demonstrated the availability of good as the effectual remedy for all our ills.

Mary Baker Eddy, Discoverer of Christian Science and author of Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, was one of the world's greatest benefactors and we study her life and her works with ever increasing love and gratitude. Her discovery of the divine Principle of Christian healing marked the beginning of a new era in religious teaching and practice. For eighteen hundred years Christ's Christianity had been accepted as the ideal religion and the adherents of this faith considered it the most potent influence for good that had ever enriched human experience. The Sermon on the Mount was the fulfilling of law and prophecy. It was more definite and more practical than the teachings of Moses and the prophets and it was more successful in turning thought into right channels and more effective in directing human affairs because it was divested of all material theories and practices.

The influence of Christianity is seen in every step of human progress. It has exalted the loftiest ideals and inspired the greatest sacrifices. It has ever been the source of strength and courage to those faithful pioneers of Truth who considered not their own good but another's good. This religion was a thing of vital importance to the primitive Christians and they esteemed all else of little value, in comparison. The early disciples of Jesus were so divinely imbued with the spirit of his teachings that nothing could turn them from the faith. Many were persecuted even unto death, but these faithful followers of Christ were ever able to say with Paul, "these things we count more than conquerors through him that loved us."

The advent of Christianity was the greatest spiritual awakening the world has ever known, and the Founder of the Christian religion was the highest earthly representative of the divine image and likeness. During the centuries which followed, all Christian people have put their trust in him as the Saviour of men. His teachings were understood only in part and so the sincere seekers of truth were not fully enlightened.

If we base our conclusions on the Biblical record of the early Christians it must be clear to us that they had a more practical idea of salvation than is generally entertained today. They esteemed their faith in God as the effectual remedy for all discordant conditions, and so the words of the apostle, "Behold now is the accepted time, now is the day of salvation," mean more to them than to some people of this age. So long as faith was manifest by works it was vitally important and its influence was felt but when speculation took the place of demonstration and men were taught a theoretical rather than a practical religion, salvation became a future possibility instead of a present reality.

Christianity is Spiritual. Christianity, as taught and demonstrated by the Founder, Christ Jesus, is purely spiritual religion. It was a radical departure from the forms and ceremonies of Jewish worship. Jesus declared that the time had come when "the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth." He taught that true worship is expressed in spiritual living and not in the observance of rites and ceremonies. So long as his followers were able to demonstrate their faith in healing sickness and destroying sin, Christianity was maintained in its purity, but when a sense of materialism blinded the eyes of the people these works were no longer in evidence and the spiritual import of the gospel was lost.

Teaching and practice gradually became more and more material until the true idea of Christianity was almost lost sight of, but God had not left himself without a witness. There were a few spiritually minded persons who had eyes to see and they earnestly protested against the material teachings and practices which had the sanction of the established church. These protestations were received with favor on the part of many earnest seekers for truth and a great awakening came about the middle of the sixteenth century. This revival of spiritual activity was so widespread that it is known in history as the Reformation. This awakening did not wholly succeed in establishing primitive Christianity with its attendant blessings and benefits, but it was of vital importance in that it laid the foundation for the greater work to be accomplished when the world was made ready for it.

Wise spiritual leaders, who received the waning faith of the people and quickened the desire to know God and serve Him acceptably, arose at various times. It is noteworthy that in all ages the men and women who were most successful in turning thought away from materialism to the contemplation of spiritual things were those who had been most faithful in the practice of the purest and best religious teachings of their day. These faithful followers of Christ prepared the way for the fuller unfolding of Truth and a clearer realization of God's ever-presence and love.

Christian Science. The greatest spiritual awakening of recent centuries began with the discovery of Christian Science a little more than half a century ago. This awakening has increased in strength and momentum with every passing year. The light has never waned and there has never been a time when there was the slightest evidence of decreasing interest in this new-old teaching of the Christ.

Mary Baker Eddy, the acknowledged Leader of the Christian Science movement, was a woman of exemplary character; a devout Christian from early childhood and a faithful friend of humanity, respected and loved by all who knew her. Like other great reformers, Mrs. Eddy had been carefully instructed according to the highest and best spiritual thought of the age, and she was faithful in her endeavor to put into practice the teachings of Holy Writ. The life of Jesus as it was portrayed in the Scriptures was her ideal and she believed that it is possible for men to follow his example even to the extent of doing the healing works which he declared would be done by all who understand his doctrine.

The search for health during many years of invalidism led to the investigation of nearly every method of healing which promised relief. One thing after another failed her and she pondered the meaning of her mother's oft repeated words of comfort and assurance, "God is able to heal you." An accident resulted in injuries which neither medicine nor surgery could reach and her life was despaired of. In this hour of extremity she turned to the Bible for strength and consolation and as she read the account of the healing of the paralytic as recorded in the ninth chapter of Matthew, the healing power of Truth was manifested and she arose from her bed, completely restored.

This marvel of the nineteenth century was the beginning of the Christian Science movement, a movement which encircled the globe more than a score of years ago, bringing health and joy to unnumbered thousands. The healing of sickness and sin was the foundation on which Jesus established his work, and the healing of sickness and sin is the very corner stone of Christian Science teaching and practice.

It was evident to Mrs. Eddy that she had gained her health in a manner not to be accounted for by the teachings of the medical schools, or by any other teachings based on material hypotheses. Her attending physician earnestly desired to know what had wrought the miracle, but she could only assure him that it was the work of God. There was no human cause to which she might turn for an answer to the question as to how her healing had been accomplished. She tells us that she found nothing in the teachings of modern writers save the teachings of the Scriptures, which could enlighten her in the least and thus she was led to study her Bible even more faithfully than before. She learned that she must find a new basis of interpretation, since the generally accepted explanations of Holy Writ had not made it clear as to suffering humanity that God is willing to heal the sick as well as to save the sinner. As she searched diligently for the spiritual meaning of the inspired word, the light of Truth gradually dispelled the darkness of material belief and revealed the universe of God's creating perfect, harmonious, and eternal.

Spiritual Interpretation. In the spiritual interpretation of the Scriptures, Mrs. Eddy discovered the divine Principle of Jesus' teachings and works to be God. This statement leads us to the consideration of the fact that Christian Science is the spiritual import of the inspired Word. The material interpretation of Jesus' teachings has rendered them impractical and impossible of demonstration while the spiritual interpretation makes them readily understood and possible of application to all the affairs and experiences of daily life. When interpreted materially the Scriptures often seem to be contradictory, but when interpreted spiritually, it is found that each declaration of Truth is in accord with every other and there are no contradictions in the inspired writings.

It is in the matter of Scriptural interpretation that Christian Science has departed from the generally accepted religious doctrines. If Mrs. Eddy had not forsaken the material interpretation for the spiritual she would not have discovered the divine Science of Jesus' teachings. Having experienced the healing power of Truth she was persuaded that an intelligent answer to the question how she had been restored to health could be found. The study of the Scriptures in the light of her wonderful experience enabled Mrs. Eddy to grasp the spiritual fact sufficiently to formulate the rules which make possible the practical application of the inspired teachings.

Science and Health. Mrs. Eddy gave to the world the results of her study and research, not, however, until she had demonstrated the correctness of her conclusions by healing the sick and reforming the sinful. These conclusions are clearly set forth in the Christian Science text-book, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures. Faithful study of this book in connection with the Bible imparts the understanding which enables the earnest seeker for Truth to demonstrate Christian Science by healing sickness and destroying the false sense of pleasure in wrong doing.

The author of Science and Health and other works on Christian Science was a most successful writer, teacher and leader. In all that she did she evidenced her fitness for the great work to which she was called. Mrs. Eddy was ever faithful to the things of Spirit; she constantly turned to divine Love for wisdom and guidance and this was the secret of her remarkable achievements. For many years she stood with staff in hand, ready to move on when God pointed the way, and it is to her untiring efforts, her unceasing vigilance, her supreme devotion to that which purifies and elevates character, her countless heroic sacrifices, little known even to her nearest friends, it is to these that we and all the world are indebted for the unprecedented prosperity of the cause of Christian Science.

Mrs. Eddy the Discoverer. Repeated attempts have been made to show that some one other than Mrs. Eddy discovered Christian Science, or that Mrs. Eddy simply revived an old teaching and gave it a new setting. One thing of greatest importance seems to have been overlooked by these critics, namely, that no one who sought to show that Christian Science was discovered by some one else has ever demonstrated that the understanding gained from the study of other writings, enabled him to heal the sick. Christian Science is demonstrable and this fact reveals the great difference between a theoretical and a practical teaching.

Mrs. Eddy's writings are distinctly original. No religious teacher since the days of apostles has taken such a broad, comprehensive view of Scriptural teachings, neither has there been any one who arrived at the same definite conclusions concerning the universal application of these teachings to the activities of human experience. Early critics admitted that Mrs. Eddy's writings were original, but they said they would never be read, much less would they have any pronounced effect on the thought of the age. Forty years have passed since these the opponents of Christian Science thought they had effectually disposed of this new teaching; what is the result? Never was there so great a demand for her writings as there is today. The time has come when it is difficult to find a person of intelligence and influence who has not read her book, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures. This shows that what Mrs. Eddy wrote concerning God, man, and human experience commands more than a passing consideration by all thinking people.

Let us take one instance of the originality of her writings. Never was there so great a demand for her writings as there is today. This shows that what Mrs. Eddy wrote concerning God, man, and human experience commands more than a passing consideration by all thinking people. The time has come when it is difficult to find a person of intelligence and influence who has not read her book, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures. This shows that what Mrs. Eddy wrote concerning God, man, and human experience commands more than a passing consideration by all thinking people.

Jesus' Mission. Jesus of Nazareth was the Founder of the Christian religion and a careful study of his works as well as his teachings is indispensable to a right apprehension of his mission on earth. He made plain the way of salvation from all evil, disease and suffering as well as sin. It is a fatal mistake to conclude that the mission of Jesus was merely to teach men how to prepare for happiness in a future life. "I am come," said he, "that they (men) might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." The demonstration of his teachings met the human need and those who were blest thereby had life more abundantly, even on this plane of existence. The prophet Isaiah foresaw the coming of this healing religion and he wrote, "Then shall the eyes of the blind be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing." This prophecy was fulfilled literally in the first century of the Christian era, but because men are unable to demonstrate God's power to heal the sick, they have said that these words of the prophet are to be interpreted spiritually; that they refer to the healing of spiritual blindness, deafness and other moral infirmities. It does mean just such healing as this, but it also has a direct reference to the power of Truth to heal all ills of the flesh. The blind, the deaf, the dumb, and the lame were healed by Jesus and his disciples. When man's spiritual healing is accomplished the physical healing follows as a necessary consequence. Is it not spiritual blindness which causes one to question God's willingness to restore harmony to one who has lost the sense of sight; what but spiritual deafness prevents humanity from hearing the voice of Truth saying to the afflicted one, "Thy faith hath made thee whole?" What but spiritual dumbness prevents the Christian from saying to the lame man, "Take up thy bed and walk?" Spiritual understanding casts out all errors of mortal belief, lifts thought above the discords of bodily existence and makes man every whit whole.

Witness of Good Works. When John sent his disciples to Jesus and asked whether his coming into the world was in fulfillment of prophecy the great Teacher pointed to his works instead of referring to his doctrine. His works evidenced the truth of what he taught and his works convinced his followers that he was sent of God to deliver suffering humanity from the physical and moral evils which held them in bondage. He said, "The works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me." Nicodemus realized that the argument of good works was unanswerable and he came to Jesus saying, "Teacher, we know that thou art a teacher come from God; for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him."

Jesus declared that such healing works as he did would ever be the proof that his teachings were understood. In every age a living faith is manifest in works; "Faith without works is dead," declared the apostle. Jesus was opposed by the religionists of his day, not because he taught the law and the prophets but because he demonstrated that the Truth revealed in law and prophecy could heal the sick and reform the sinner. To those materially minded persons who were satisfied with the observance of forms and ceremonies, it seemed impossible that the healing of sickness could result from the exercise of a reasonable faith in God, and they declared that Jesus cast out devils thru Beelzebub.

Christian Science Not Mesmerism. It is sometimes said by ignorant or malicious opponents of practical Christianity that the healing works accomplished in Christian Science are merely the result of mesmerism. The accusations of the Pharisees against the Master were false, and the assertion that Christian Science healing is the work of hypnotism or suggestion is utterly void of intelligence or truth. It may be that the belief in mesmerism has helped to accomplish results similar to the healing works of Christian Science, just as the necromancers of Egypt claimed to duplicate the wonderful works of Moses, but spiritual understanding reveals the great difference between Christian Science and hypnotic control. The latter claims to work from a material basis, even the belief of mind in matter and intelligence apart from God, while Christian Science heals through the understanding of the universe of Mind, God, and the intelligence of everything which opposes itself to God, the first commandment, "Thou shalt have no other gods before me." It is the basis of Christian Science teaching and demonstration. Obedience to this commandment robs the belief in mesmerism of any seeming power. Christian Science is the only protection against this so-called influence which claims to work evil as well as good. Nothing but good can result from the scientific application of spiritual teaching. Christianity, understood as it is capable of demonstration, it can arms evil, breaks the shackles of sin and disease, and causes men to rejoice in the liberty of the children of God.

Prayer. Mrs. Eddy has spoken of the exercise of will-power, which is the basis of mesmerism, as the prayer of unrighteousness which can never really benefit humanity. True prayer can bring only good into human experience and it is indispensable to Christian activity. The possible results of prayer should be understood, otherwise mortals may fancy that prayer can be used to advance their own personal interests, possibly to the detriment of others. It may be difficult to eliminate the thought of self interest from human purpose and desire, but only as this is possible to offer that prayer which avails with God. The revealing opinion that prayer is simply asking for that which is desired is based on the belief that it is possible for mortals to influence God, perchance causing Him to do that which He might not have done, or to bestow when He would have withheld. A prominent English theologian wrote, "Prayer to God doth not change Him, but fits us to receive the thing prayed for." This definition of prayer is in accord with the teachings of Jesus which clearly show that man is blest according to his fitness to receive. The purpose of prayer is to prepare the mind and the only right motive is to prepare human thought for the reception of spiritual good.

Jesus taught the necessity of seeking first the kingdom of God and His righteousness that all things needful to harmonious growth and activity might be added. He said to his disciples, "Your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things before ye ask him." Knowing the need, is it reasonable to suppose that God would withhold aid that it is impossible for men to attain that which is for their good? Is it not more reasonable to conclude that if men do not receive it is because they have not prayed aright? When Jesus said, "If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you," he taught that the sincere desire of the heart, inspired with love for God and man, can not lead one astray and it is blest of the Father.

In true prayer there can be no opposing interests. The conflicting hopes, desires, and aspirations of human thought, resulting from diversity of opinions and beliefs, are the prayers of unrighteousness which can avail nothing for humanity. To suppose that God would bless one person in a manner which would cause another to suffer loss, is to lose sight of the definite teaching of Holy Writ that God is Love and Love is no respecter of persons. True prayer is unselfish and universal as will be seen from a careful study of the Lord's prayer which Jesus left as a model for all men, since it covers all human needs. Would any mortal who prayed for himself one individual of anything necessary to his present harmony and progress? By no means. True prayer can never work injury to any one. God's law is the law of eternal justice and nothing can render it null and void. Suggestion. The mere repetition of words, audibly or mentally, is not prayer. The Master said to his followers, "When ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking." This perverted thought of prayer may be more general than is supposed. It may be that it obtains even where it is unrecognized because human thought does not perceive the danger and knows not the means of defense. Mortals are so intent in achieving what they think is for their good that they do not stop to consider what may have prompted their course of action; they are not as careful as audibly repeating words, as if the words should be heard for their much speaking. This perverted thought of prayer may be more general than is supposed. wrong doing, but this is not in accord with the teachings of Holy Writ. The law of God is clearly set forth in these words of Paul, "Whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap." This law can not be set aside or rendered of no effect. The inevitable result of sin is suffering and there is no way of escape. What, then, constitutes the forgiveness of sin according to the teachings of Christian Science? Even the destruction of the desire to sin; there can be no other forgiveness. The desire to sin is an erroneous belief of the carnal mind, even the belief that it is possible to gain something or to find pleasure in wrong doing. Mortals must be saved from this delusion or they will never escape the suffering which sin produces. So long as the sinful desire remains it must bring suffering, for mortals are punished by their sins. The effectual forgiveness of sin, the forgiveness which truly repents a sinner desires, is the destruction of sinful thoughts. If the sinner wishes merely to escape the suffering he has brought upon himself he is not truly repentant. The desire to escape the consequence of sin accomplishes nothing, but the longing to be delivered from the inclination to do wrong is true repentance. The wise man is willing to suffer if this is necessary to his deliverance. Sin is forgiven when the desire to sin is destroyed and not before. The destruction of sin is a present salvation from sin.

Baptism. The question of baptism is closely associated with the forgiveness of sin in the teachings of the various religious denominations and because it is a religious ceremony it has occasioned not a little controversy. The conclusion that baptism is essential to salvation is based on these words of Jesus, "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned." It seems to be the generally accepted conclusion that Jesus here referred to water baptism, inasmuch as he was baptized by John, and the controversy has been occasioned by a difference of opinion upon what mode of water baptism meets the divine requirements. John the Baptist said concerning his baptism, "I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance; but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire." It is impossible to interpret these words of John literally, or materially, and so it is conceded that they must have a spiritual significance. Is it unreasonable to conclude that it was this baptism, the baptism of the Holy Ghost and of fire, to which Jesus referred in the words just quoted? Spiritual baptism is the one thing needful. If water baptism is accepted as a religious sacrament it must be admitted that it is but the outward symbol of that spiritual baptism which is essential to salvation. Paul declared there is "one Lord, one faith, one baptism," and a careful study of the apostle's writings shows that he refers to spiritual baptism. Christian Science departs so far as possible from all material observances, and so the baptism recognized in the Church of Christ, Scientist, is spiritual baptism. When we have this understanding of the word "baptism," the observance of a material rite is no longer necessary.

Atonement. The doctrine of atonement, as well as the question of baptism and the forgiveness of sin, has ever been a perplexing theological problem. It is generally considered that the atonement means a reconciliation between man and God who had become estranged by reason of man's disobedience. The Scriptures declare that Jesus is the mediator between God and men. Human philosophy has interpreted this to mean that Jesus' life of labor and sacrifice effected a reconciliation between God and man, and that he may have in God in other directions, his lack of faith in this respect is the error which deprives him of the good he might otherwise experience. Isaiah said, "The Lord's hand is not shortened that it can not save, nor his ear heavy that it can not hear; but your iniquities have separated between you and your God." Errors of thought, ignorantly entertained, prevent the recognition of God's ever-presence. Jesus demonstrated the power of Truth and Love to destroy all the works of evil, and thus he proved God's willingness to help humanity in every time of need.

If it be God's will for men to be saved from sin, and this is the firm conviction of every believer in the Christian religion it must be His will for men to be delivered from the effects of sin. The term sin means more than is included in the generally accepted meaning of the word. Paul declared that "whatsoever is not of faith is sin." This is another way of saying that faith, or spiritual understanding includes all that is real; it follows that all wrong thinking and all wrong doing, whether ignorant or intentional, is included in the term sin in its broader significance. Taking, then, this broader view of sin, and it must have been in this sense that Isaiah said, "Your iniquities have separated between you and your God," we see that sin, or wrong thinking, is the cause of all discord and suffering. When this conclusion is reached it is readily apparent that the only effectual remedy for discordant conditions is right thinking. What constitutes right thinking? This is the all important question. The understanding of the first commandment, "Thou shalt have no other gods before me," is the answer. Only as one grasps the true idea of God is he able to distinguish between right thinking and wrong thinking. To believe in more than one God is sin. Mortal man is an idolater even though he may not have set up in his house an image of wood or stone. He believes in a power apart from God; he believes in the reality of that which cannot have proceeded from God, and so he has more than one creator. Whatever prevents the recognition of God to be the only power, cause, and creator is sin and constitutes wrong thinking. Jesus drew the line very sharply between Truth and error, good and evil, right and wrong. When his words are comprehended aright, i. e., when their spiritual import is discerned, it is understood that he taught how to overcome all evil and how to gain all good. He showed very clearly that mere profession counts for naught. It is what a man does that reveals what he really believes. It is impossible to separate right thinking from right doing.

The Wise Builder. Jesus concluded his Sermon on the Mount by illustrating the great difference between the man who hears and obeys and those who hear but fail to obey. The former he likened to a man who built his house on a rock, and it stood even though the fury of the element was turned against it. Those who hear and yet fail to put into practice what they hear, he compared to the foolish man who builds on the sand. Because it was in foundation his house was blown away by the wind and the rain. All that is built on the belief of a power, cause, or creator apart from God, is built on the sand and it will fall, it may stand for a time, but its ultimate destruction is inevitable. A house built on the sand may be as attractive as one built on rock and for awhile it may answer its purpose fully as well, but when comes a time when the great difference between the two is manifest, in the same manner, the difference between Truth and error is ultimately revealed.

The conclusion reached by Eddy and expressed in her words, "There is no life, true intelligence, nor substance matter," (Science and Health, 468), shows how mortals do but on the sand though they know not. Previous to Mrs. Eddy's discovery of Christian Science, the Christian people had not known the difference between a scientific substance, and truth in matter on the contrary they thought it had scriptural authority for accepting material sense testimony in this connection. Take away this fundamental error of mortal belief and what would occur? The indulgence of sinful thoughts or what would be the foundation of disease and suffering? The words of Mrs. Eddy, as quoted above, when they remain as they are, the Master's words understood, "The flesh profiteth nothing." Every conclusion reached by Mrs. Eddy is supported by the words and works of Jesus. His words have been used for centuries and his works have been accepted as demonstration of divine power, but the universal application of his teachings has been impossible because the value of his words was not realized. Christian Science has restored the correct interpretation of the Master's teachings, all who understand his doctrine are able to demonstrate the power of Truth to heal the sick, cure the sorrowing, reform the sinner, and set at liberty them that are bound by the illusion of a power apart from God. Christian Science helps men to understand what the great Teacher has said when he said, "It is the spirit that quickeneth; . . . the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life."

Every pang of repentance and suffering, every effort for reform, every good thought and deed, will help us to understand Jesus' atonement for sin and aid its efficacy; but if the sinner continues to pray and repent, sin and be sorry, he has little part in the atonement—in the at-one-ment with God,—for he lacks the practical repentance, which reforms the heart and enables man to do the will of wisdom.

Christian Science is based on a fixed Principle which is "the same yesterday, and today, and forever," and the whole work of reformation is to establish man's unity with God and his absolute freedom from all evil. Man, made in the divine image and likeness, has never been separated from his heavenly Father. It is mortal man which is separated from the harmony of real being and pays the penalty for sin. Mortals must forsake the false sense of existence if they would escape from evil and gain the harmony and perfection of spiritual being.

Healing. We have considered briefly the subjects of prayers, the forgiveness of sin, baptism, and the atonement. The inevitable result of these, as understood in Christian Science, is healing, physical and moral. We have observed that prayer is the means by which man avails himself of that good which God has already bestowed. True prayer results in the destruction of sinful desires to sin; this constitutes the forgiveness of sin. When the desire to sin is destroyed, thought is purified,—purged of mortal and material beliefs,—and this is the true baptism. Jesus said, "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God." Purity of thought enables man to realize his oneness with God and this is the significance of the atonement. The atonement means physical and moral healing in the destruction of sin and the healing of sickness, man's inseparable unity with God is exemplified. Thus the errors of mortal existence are atoned for and humanity escapes the suffering which sin produces; not because the penalty due to wrong doing has been remitted, but because the love of sin no longer remains to bring suffering.

Christian Science can heal the sick only by removing that which causes sickness. It can save from suffering only by destroying the false sense which produces suffering. "The soul that sinneth, it shall die," the law of eternal mercy and justice. The destruction of the soul, or sense, which sins is not the destruction of man; rather it is the resurrection of man to the true sense of life and being. Man loses nothing thru this destruction, on the contrary he gains the consciousness of existence which is forever harmonious and eternal. When the sense of being is understood it will be seen that disease and sin are no part of man's real being. They are the dis-ease, or suffering, of a false sense which shut out the light of Truth and Love. The dawning of the light reveals the day of salvation here and now, wherein man is saved from all that is unlike God.

Jesus said, "Every plant which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up;" in other words, every thought which proceeds not from God, good, shall be destroyed thru spiritual understanding. Did the thought of sin, disease, or suffering originate with God? Surely no one believes that it did. Here we have scriptural authority for saying that it is God's will that disease, and all bodily infirmities, be utterly destroyed. According to the teachings of Jesus it is possible to overcome all evil with the understanding of God's omnipotence.

Wrong Thinking. If one doubts the "power of Truth to heal the sick, he will not expect his prayers to avail in the time of physical distress. How, even now, he may have in God in other directions, his lack of faith in this respect is the error which deprives him of the good he might otherwise experience. Isaiah said, "The Lord's hand is not shortened that it can not save, nor his ear heavy that it can not hear; but your iniquities have separated between you and your God." Errors of thought, ignorantly entertained, prevent the recognition of God's ever-presence. Jesus demonstrated the power of Truth and Love to destroy all the works of evil, and thus he proved God's willingness to help humanity in every time of need.

If it be God's will for men to be saved from sin, and this is the firm conviction of every believer in the Christian religion it must be His will for men to be delivered from the effects of sin. The term sin means more than is included in the generally accepted meaning of the word. Paul declared that "whatsoever is not of faith is sin." This is another way of saying that faith, or spiritual understanding includes all that is real; it follows that all wrong thinking and all wrong doing, whether ignorant or intentional, is included in the term sin in its broader significance. Taking, then, this broader view of sin, and it must have been in this sense that Isaiah said, "Your iniquities have separated between you and your God," we see that sin, or wrong thinking, is the cause of all discord and suffering. When this conclusion is reached it is readily apparent that the only effectual remedy for discordant conditions is right thinking. What constitutes right thinking? This is the all important question. The understanding of the first commandment, "Thou shalt have no other gods before me," is the answer. Only as one grasps the true idea of God is he able to distinguish between right thinking and wrong thinking. To believe in more than one God is sin. Mortal man is an idolater even though he may not have set

PRICE OF WHEAT

ADVANCED FRIDAY
(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Wheat took an upward swing in price today helped by the calling off of the railroad strike. Closing quotations, although unsettled, were were 1 1/2 to 2 1/2¢ not higher, with December $1.08 to $1.08 1/2, and May $1.13 1/2 to $1.14. Corn gained 1 1/2 to 1 3/4¢ and oats 1¢ to 1 1/4¢. In provisions the outcome carried from 25¢ decline to 5¢ advance.

Only moderate strength showed itself in wheat at the opening and the buying was far from being of an aggressive character. Later, however, bulls displayed more confidence and then there were material gains, with practically all of the advance being led by the finish. Aside from the rail strike settlement the chief stimulating factor was an estimate that the yield this season in thirty nine countries was 154,000,000 bushels less than last year's total.

On the other hand, export business appeared to be at a lull, and bears declared that higher values would be difficult to attain pending the removal of export congestion. Complaints of dry weather continued, especially from the southwest, where the lack of moisture was said to have jeopardized the new winter crop.

Corn and oats rose with wheat.
Besides unfavorable husking returns from Illinois had considerable effect on the corn market.

Provisions were lower most of the time in line with hogs. January lard however, was in demand from outside packers.

STOCK MARKET HAS

ACTIVE SESSION
By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The stock market today responded to the abandonment of the proposed railroad strike by an active session in which sales approximated 1,000 shares and leading rails, industrials and many specialties scored extreme gains of 1 to 3 points.

Shorts contributed largely to today's movement, covering contracts in almost every branch of the list, but commission houses reported a substantial investment inquiry from local and out of town sources.

Steels, equipments, motors, coppers and a wide variety of miscellaneous contributed their proportion to the day's large and diversified market.

Relaxed money conditions accelerated the upward movement, call money declining from six per cent to 5 1/2 per cent at midday.
In private negotiations demand loans were made at as low as 4 1/2 per cent, 30 and 60 day accommodations also showing slight concessions.

All the important foreign exchanges were lower, sterling reacting 3 1/2 cents from the week's highest quotation with declines of 3 to 10 points for the more active continental remittances, excepting the French rate, which was comparatively steady.
